

A1.2

This module is designed for students who have completed previous courses or students with equivalent language skills of HSK level 1. It will cover more topics about activities. Chinese characters will also be introduced in this level, though the primary emphasis is on speaking and listening.

Topics covered:

- Ask about prices and how to bargain
- Ask time-related questions
- Talk about your travel plan
- Colours
- Past experience
- Comparative sentence
- Make an appointment
- Seasons and weather
- Talk about your occupation

Learning Outcomes

On completion of this course learners will be able to: participate in a variety of situations drawn from real life; give and respond to basic day-to-day instructions; ask for information on locations and directions and how to respond; describe and comment something; develop a speaking and listening vocabulary of approximately 330 words and frequently used phrases; develop a written vocabulary of 200 characters.